The market has recently been flooded with mounting systems for the iPad.

Some are practical, others well designed, but the ultimate iPad frame still had to be conceived.

Elegant and stylish,
Eve embraces the iPad and turns it into an amazing wall mounted touch screen.

Eve complements the iPad with respect for its pure design without hiding it.

Eve, the ultimate iPad frame.

on-wall

Eve is easily mounted on the wall. The complete product is only 3mm (0.12") larger than the iPad itself. It allows permanent mounting of the iPad on the wall.

Eve is the perfect alternative to a traditional touch screen which can be overpowering in a modern interior.

always charged

Eve can be used in combination with the Apple iPad charger or the basalte "puck" USB charger. (available separately)

No need to remove the iPad from the frame for charging. No unsightly cables or connections.

made in belgium

The frame is simple and understated. It embraces the iPad in an elegant, fine border. Its sleek design enhances the perfection of the iPad.

Eve is precisely machined from solid aluminium to perfectly complement your iPad.

fixed

Eve holds your iPad securely, thanks to a small lip and magnetic fixings.

installation flexibility

Eve can be installed either in portrait or landscape orientation.

compatibility

Eve is compatible with the iPad 2 and the new iPad. A spacer is provided to correctly mount the iPad 2.
